Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Professionally this has been an exciting week as teachers observe in each other's classes. This initiative, designed by the teachers, demonstrates the professionalism of our staff. AND read below for lots more good news items.

Working Bee Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 June

Yes, it is Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 (if we don't get it done Saturday)

- If you haven't got the notice contact the school and we'll resend it
- If you haven't returned your notice please do so ASAP

Guitar Lessons

We have a guitar teacher available starting Thursday 4th June. This is Les Meadows, Debbie's husband, who is a professional music teacher and comes to us highly recommended. Lessons will be on Thursdays and will work on the same format as keyboard lessons in that any contractual agreement is between you and the teacher. One variation is that I have stipulated that lessons for each child must be at a different time each week so the child doesn't miss the same learning slot every week. Interested? Contact Les on meadows.les@gmail.com or 021 120 9084

Drumming Lessons

These are also being offered by Les Meadows using an electronic drum kit. Same conditions and contacts as above.

Working Bee Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 June

This will see the PE shed project pushed very close to completion. As well we have jobs around school. Come and be part of it. If you are available contact Lisa Toovey at lisa.toovey@mainzeal.com
